

NSAnta KNwOS BEST

By Dr. Nothing :: Communication Art

At just five years of age I looked up to my father, stared him straight in the eye and said "you are Santa." I spent the rest of those years not believing until one day while walking 15 miles back home, I noticed along my path newspapers conspicuously placed on the ground in front of fields of nothing but grass and dirt with headlines such as "Greenspan, in a dysfunctional relationship with the Fed, breaks up" catered to invoke insane behavior from my mental state at the time.

I know now that the illuminati (not all human) use their third eye, found so prominent in our Federal Reserve notes, to seize all of time in their goal to play God and pave a new world of sublimated peace on Earth. In the past thirty years, in an effort to overcome the fluoride subduing the pineal glands of oblivious factions in the NSA, the NSA have poured tons of R&D into silicon based third eyes to keep an eye on everyone in the world. The adage "he knows when you have been good or bad" is the ultimate goal to help cull the masses in what in their eyes they believe are less favorable and of dissent--to destroy those that are a detriment to their plan of a new model of an enslaved society of the meek.

Project MK-Kultra has been in-acted to bring together minds deviant from the status-quo to respond to this new Santa, the NSAnta, and offer them fluoride detox in exchange for complete disclosure of our political relations with the real Santa Claus.

NSAnta prepares to bring joy to the world in Project Enduring Culling.

Q4 Radio: Gift Not Leverage Your Dish-Wish @ Work

Raspberry Pi designed to detonate radio waves in the air at a frequency of 1710 khz just in time for Christmas.

The detonation device to bring the radio to the airwaves had it's essential software taken hostage by the Grinch during the nightmare before Christmas. It was a dispute over whose candy cane is the biggest and by far the Grinch's candy cane keeps getting bigger.

There was a lot of collateral damage due to the hostage of data that has led many instruments of saving the world to be left in darkness while the high council was in recess of which the Grinch played a role.

The high council has come to an agreement with the Grinch that certain essential files are returned and that the data farm will be returned once the candy canes resume to their less excited sizes.

However as for Q4 radio, Dr. Nothing and Joe Weed have pitched in to come up with an interim solution for radio transmission using a combination of several pulley systems and a vacuum tube.

The Multikulti kitchen will be accepting a new Karmic Payment Plan for those who do not wash the dishes they dirty, a change that is met with both joy and fear. The new Karmic Payment Plan will allow Multikulti patrons and guests to leave dirty dishes in exchange for an understanding that down the road of life they will someday experience a minor inconvenience to equalize the dirty dish or dishes left at Multikulti. The new program will replace an outdated system of "expecting" or "assuming" that adults would be responsible for themselves and clean their own dishes in a shared space like the MK. It was agreed upon by the MK High Council that the new Karmic Payment should not be violent or anything tragic, but something that equalizes the time spent to wash the dishes that inevitably overtake the MK kitchenette.

Frequent dishwasher Marla had this to say, "I don't mind washing the dishes very much, those guys are so busy with all of the very important work that they do saving the world and all."

The Garlic staff interviewed two dirty dish leavers who wished to remain anonymous and they had this to say, "I don't want to lose my hair because I don't like to wash dishes and it is easier to just put them in the sink at Multikulti than wash them."

Another anonymous dish dirtier was less concerned about the shift in policy, "I don't believe in karma so I am going to continue to drink coffee there and then just mindlessly leave the mug somewhere."

The new policy will not require any sign up or enrollment, things will simply work themselves out. This feature will likely appeal to those who are too busy to do their dishes or need to leave unexpectedly. It was emphasized numerous times in the research for this article that people WILL still be allowed to wash their own dishes and mugs.

He Profits So You Can Save

When Jesus saves, he is also getting a really good deal!

By Dr. Katalyst :: A Bad Boy

The corporate sponsored Jesus will be known here on out as Jesus.

All through the streets people are cheering with glee, as they trample each other for flat screen TVs.

Just as Jesus intended, people are flocking to their local retailers for discounts you would literally kill for.

As is custom when celebrating the birth of Jesus you have to do it in high definition with no less than a 55 inch flat screen TV as it is prescribed in the your local store bible.

People are already getting into the holiday spirit, as six people have been trampled to death in the excitement for these incredible savings which can only help to dignify Jesus' birth by immaculate conception.

We remember Jesus as he spoketh a message that would ring out for eternity when he uttered the famous parable "buy yourself happiness!" and gave the great sermon on the mall encouraging people to all "go shopping."

What better way to celebrate the birth of our lord than buying a new iPhone, or Xbox.

We all know that nobody has more money than Jesus, he just lived life filthy stinking rich, as is clear by his love for high end luxury items and his path of living a glamorous pretty boy celebrity lifestyle.

But now Jesus the almighty prophet and savior is going to pass on these incredible savings to YOU!

JPMorgan Chase Bank is now offering a special holiday platinum card for real savings, because if you're looking to be saved, you will get special cash back bonuses every time you buy. For a limited time only, some restrictions may apply.

Every time you shop with your holiday platinum card make sure to think of Jesus and thank him for all the incredible savings and special rewards bonuses.

It was written in the New Testament that Jesus gave special powers to Santa Claus to be his ambassador on earth as a way to get people into the consumer spirit. Santa's little helpers have since been working tirelessly around the clock in sweatshops across third world countries to make the consumer goods that will bring Christmas joy to all the girls and boys in America.

We recall the teachings of the gospels, how they preach a universal message to humankind telling us to go to the mall together and fight each other to buy commercial items at incredible low prices. With already six dead, and dozens injured, it looks like it's going to be another great Christmas this year!

Introducing Connect with Jesus. Bluetooth Cross. Made with 100% Genuine Fools Gold. Bring Jesus to your living room big screen TV for Christmas.
